

Midwest Electric Products, Inc.

In 2002, changes were made to the National Electric Code (NEC) requiring "in-use" covers on outdoor receptacles.

ANY receptacle located outdoors or in a wet or damp location MUST have an enclosure that is weatherproof, regardless if a plug is inserted.

Why settle for fragile plastic covers when our galvanized steel receptacles meet your requirements and exceed your expectations!

"In-Use" Cover

QUALITY WEATHERPROOF
ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT

Powers the Great Outdoors